Narrative

Palmdale Patrol Deputies served search warrants early Monday morning in relation to a "Smash and Grab" commercial burglary that occurred around 1:00 AM.

Deputies were responding to a burglary alarm call at the "B-1 Liquor Market," located at 3005 East Palmdale Blvd, when they arrived to find the front door of the business smashed and register missing. During their investigation handling deputies were able to obtain a description of both the suspect and his vehicle.

At approximately 4:30 AM Palmdale Deputy Daniel Cassese was on routine patrol when he noticed a vehicle matching the same description near the corner off Sierra Highway and Palmdale Blvd. After conducting a traffic stop and further investigation, deputies arrested the driver of the vehicle, Webster, for the commercial burglary. Webster denied having any involvement with the burglary, however was unable to explain the broken pieces of glass from the businesses door still stuck in the hood of his sweatshirt.

Webster was transported and booked at the Palmdale Sheriff's Station on charges of commercial burglary with a bail of $20,000. Palmdale Detective Bureau will be handling the ongoing investigation.
